Asia Pacific Economic Integration Forum (A-Pac EIF 2022)

Theme: Connectivity Dots in Asia Pacific for Realising Regional Potential for Global Welfare

Among several continents, the Asia Pacific (A-Pac) region has developed importance in various aspects of international linkages, including trade, investment, or even labour mobility over the past couple decades. According to International Comparison Program, 2021 the A-Pac region also contributes to more than half of the world's population in the year 2017. The proportion of total investment in terms of Gross Fixed Capital Formation is around 40% of the global total capital formation while the proportion of consumption is around 30% of the global total. The region's GDP per capita on the basis of PPP has been rising and in 2020, it was almost 40 percent of world GDP.

Considering the indispensable role of Asia Pacific region in the global growth and development, Asia Pacific Economic Integration Forum (A-Pac EIF 2022), under collaborations among Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies (MAIMS), India; University of Economics, The University of Danang, Vietnam; Faculty of Economics & Business Administration, Dalat University, Vietnam, Thammamat Business School (TBS) and the Faculty of Economics, Thammamat University, Thailand organizes the international conference on the theme of “Connectivity Dots in Asia Pacific for Realising Regional Potential for Global Welfare”.

This conference is being organized with certain objectives.

- To identify and analyze the connectivity dots in the A-Pac region in various perspectives, including not only in terms of trade, investment and human networks, but also rules, standards and institutions, which play a pivotal role in governing the flows of interaction.
- To explore and analyze the roles of regional and international organizations, regional trading blocs and government relevant to the region.
- To analyze impacts (both favorable and unfavorable) of the connectivity on the A-Pac region, especially those relevant to SDGs.
- To provide concrete and sensible policy inferences, which can be drawn from the conference.

The conference will be held on 21-22 July 2022, one-day hosted by MAIMS, India [Hybrid] and another one-day hosted by Faculty of Economics, Thammamat University [Virtual].
